

CONTENTS

For the Reader	9
----------------	---

I	THE FUNDAMENTALS	15
----------	-------------------------	-----------

1.	The Role of Supervision in Work Culture	17
----	---	----

	The Challenges of Professional Work	18
--	--	----

	Supervision as a Response to Challenges	20
--	--	----

	Supporting the Organisation	26
--	------------------------------------	----

	Supervision and Other Forms of Development	28
--	---	----

	The Roles of a Supervisor	31
--	----------------------------------	----

2.	Supervision as a Learning Process	35
----	-----------------------------------	----

	Learning as Change and Development	36
--	---	----

	Learning at Work	37
--	-------------------------	----

	Successful Learning in Supervision	46
--	---	----

	Connecting New Experiences to Old	49
--	--	----

	Directing Attention	50
--	----------------------------	----

	Transfer	54
--	-----------------	----

3. Directing Reflection	59
The Significance of Reflection in Supervision	60
The Reflective Cycle	61
Supervisor's Action within the Reflective Cycle	66
4. Dialogical Interaction	79
Dialogue in a Supervision Session	80
The Principles of Dialogue Supporting Learning and Reflection	86
II EXECUTION AND METHODS	97
5. Practical Conditions	99
Supervisor's Education and Expertise	100
Initiating the Supervision Relationship	101
Sessions	104
The Process	108
Professional Ethics	113
6. Orientations	117
Learning to Use Supervision	118
Theme-orientation	123
Case-orientation	124
Process-orientation	128
Supervision in a Crisis Situation	131

7. Action Methods	135
Why Use Action Methods?	136
Symbols	138
Concretising Relationships	140
Empty Chairs	147
Role Reversal	149

III	SUPERVISION RELATIONSHIPS	153
------------	----------------------------------	------------

8. Individuals	155
Special Features of Individual Supervision	156
Starting Phase	159
Advancement of the Process	161
Ending Supervision	164
9. Communities	167
The Effects of Community Dynamics	168
The Tension between Individuals and Community	173
Leadership in Community Supervision	177
Stages of Community Supervision	181
10. Groups	191
Forming the Group	192
Starting the Group	194

The Advancement of the Process
and Different Orientations	197
Ending Group Supervision	203
11. Managers	206
The Role of The Leader	207
Use of Power	213
Supportive Working Environment	216
Dialogical Collaboration with Employees	221
<hr/>
Epilogue	227
The Supervisor's Checklist	229
Literature and Sources	236